DRUG FREE AWARENESS PROGRAM: MMLC will provide a drug free awareness program that will inform employees about the dangers of workplace drug abuse; the availability of drug counseling, rehabilitation, and employee assistance programs. ADDENDUM B SEXUAL HARASSMENT

POLICY

Sexual harassment in the workplace is illegal. It violates Title VII of the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1964. This policy applies to the actions of the Board members, Director, other MMLC employees, customers, outsiders and any other persons who come in contact with the MMLC employees. The MMLC Board does not tolerate sexual harassment, nor does it tolerate reprisals against any employee who makes a sexual harassment complaint. It is the policy of the MMLC Board to provide its employees with a working environment that is free from discrimination and harassment in any form.

Sexual harassment undermines the integrity of the employer/employee relationship. It lowers morale and reduces employee effectiveness because the worker is subjected to adverse employment conditions that are unrelated to job performance.

DEFINITIONS

Sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct or communication of a sexual nature where:

- Submission to such conduct is a direct or indirect condition of employment,
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a factor in decisions affecting a person's employment, or

- Such conduct interferes with an individual's employment or creates an intimidating, offensive, or hostile work environment.

Examples of conduct that could create an intimidating, offensive or hostile work environment include, but are not limited to:

- Engaging in sexually suggestive physical contact or touching another in a way that is unwelcome,
- Engaging in telling sexual jokes,
- Making graphic verbal or written comments about a person's body,
- Using sexually degrading words to describe an individual,
- Displaying sexually suggestive images or pictures
- Accessing or displaying any kind of sexually explicit image or document on any Cooperative system,
- Archiving, storing, distributing, editing or recording any sexually explicit material on the Cooperative's network or computer resources
- Engaging in indecent exposure, and
- Requesting sexual contact or sexual favors.

While one incident on its own may or may not amount to sexual harassment, a series of incidents together might amount to sexual harassment. It is important to remember that what might not be intended as offensive may be interpreted as such, and therefore one must take utmost care in communicating and working with others.

Any employee who feels that he or she is the victim of sexual harassment by any co-worker, supervisor, subordinate, customer, client or any other person in connection with employment at the Cooperative must immediately report it either to 1) the Director, 2) the Board Chair, or 3) Any member of the MMLC Board. Any individual to whom such harassment is reported must immediately report it to the Board Chair.

The Cooperative will promptly conduct an investigation of the report following a standardized procedure. Although it is impossible to conduct an investigation and maintain complete confidentiality, anyone reporting or investigating a report of sexual harassment shall do so in as confidential a manner as possible. The person making the complaint will be informed of the conclusions reached from the investigation. If harassment is found to have occurred, the Cooperative will take appropriate action to prevent further harassment.

No person will suffer adverse action for making a complaint in good faith or for taking part in the investigation of a complaint. It is the policy of the Cooperative to prohibit retaliation against anyone who makes a complaint in good faith or who takes part in the investigation of a complaint.

Employees are prohibited from harassing other workers and from harassing customers, vendors, suppliers, or any other individuals in connection with their employment, whether or not the incidents of harassment occur on Cooperative premises and whether or not the incidents occur during working hours.

Anyone found in violation of this policy and supervisors or managers who fail to report harassment charges to the Board Chair will be subject to discipline up to and including possible termination of employment.

This policy shall not alter or change the policy that employment is “at-will.”

ADDENDUM C HARASSMENT POLICY

All employees have the right to be free of harassment on the basis of race, creed, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, height, weight, marital status, veteran’s status, or disability. Harassment includes unwelcome acts or behaviors that create an atmosphere of hostility, threat, or coercion. Harassment of any sort is strictly prohibited and may result in disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

Any employee who believes that he or she has been subjected to harassment should report such incidents either to 1) the Director, 2) the Board Chair, or 3) Any member of the MMLC Board. Any individual to whom such harassment is reported must immediately report it to the Board Chair.

Employees shall not be subjected to retaliation for making a good faith report of harassment under this policy.

ADDENDUM D EQUAL OPPORTUNITY POLICY

It is Cooperative’s policy to provide equal opportunity to all employees. Our policy is to select the person we consider to be the best qualified for each position in our organization. No employee or applicant will be discriminated against because of race, creed, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, height, weight, marital status, veteran’s status, or disability with regard to any terms or conditions of employment.

A person with a disability who needs accommodation shall notify the organization in writing of the need for accommodation within 182 days after the person with a disability knew or reasonably should have known that an accommodation was needed.
